

Michelle Herringer, M.A., CALT-QI

Michelle Herringer became a Certified Academic Language Therapist through the tutelage and guidance of Sandra Dillon and became a Qualified Instructor under the wing of Mary Gilroy. She has a Masters in Reading and is a certified elementary Montessori and public school teacher.

While she was the director of Durango Montessori, she created and developed their dyslexia therapy intervention program, serving as the literacy specialist since 2016. While the director, she trained new teachers and was the professional coach and trainer for budding school leaders of Durango Montessori. Michelle has worked in private practice with students in need of dyslexia therapy services in addition to advising parents and teachers. Today, she is an instructor and coach with Sounds In Syllables and serves her local community in Durango, Colorado as a resource for education and guidance in the field of dyslexia.

Michelle enjoys adventuring in the out-of-doors, and, as a creative individual finds balance in her life through her artistic endeavors.
